Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on the defendant's Motion to Continue Trial [50]. Counsel needs additional time to negotiate a resolution short of a trial or prepare for trial. The court held a telephone conference with the attorneys on May 31, 2022. Based on the content of the motion, and the information provided in the telephone conference, the court finds good cause has been shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [50] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, now set for June 7, 2022, is continued to August 23, 2022.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and August 23, 2022, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted without a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.
4. Final Trial Order [49] is vacated.

DATED: May 31, 2022
